

The Story of Thomas Shepherd Lawry in Jordanelle

Thomas Shepherd Lawry was born in Baldhu, Cornwall England. With his wife Elizabeth Ann Deeble; who was born in Seveck, Cornwall England; migrated to United States and finally settled in Park City, Summit Co. Utah.

Together they owned & operated a store there. From Dec 1888 to Feb 1898, they had 4 of their six children in Park City.

On 19 June 1898, a raging fire "broke out" in Park City & destroyed almost the whole town. With that fire, the Thoms S Lawry Store was destroyed too.

Undaunted, & willing to work harder, Thomas & Elizabeth Ann moved to Jordanelle after buying the Benjamin A Norris Homestead.

Here they farmed and set up a roadside stand at the base of American Flag Butte to sell picnic goods, drinks, etc to the weary travelers as they journeyed along the west side of the Jordanelle section of the Provo River and on up to Salt Lake or the Upper Provo River

Thomas Shepherd Lawry and wife Elizabeth Ann Deeble Lawry built up the Norris Homestead & established a small roadside stand at the base of Am. Flag Butte. It had a stand-like front, ~~a water~~ a hitching post and watering trough to the side of the lean-to like bldg. The water for the trough was likely supplied by the spring <sup>over</sup>

-
- References: 1. "Treasure Mountain Home," a centennial History of Park city, Utah, by George A. Thompson and Frazer Buck. 1968 pp 179 Reviewed 4 June 1987-RRG
2. Personal interview with William B. Baum 1987
3. Personal interview w/ Harry & Joseph Morris around 1965 & 1966
4. Personal interviewed w/ Nile Morris summer of 1987.

References Cont'd:

5. Personal interview with John Wm & De Este C. Jordan many times (neighbors) 1984 to 1987.
6. Personal interview with Bertha (Claude) Baum 23 Mar 1988 at her home.
7. Personal interview with Thomas Isaac Baum } Bros.
8. Personal interview again with William B Baum }
9. Book "Echoes of Yesterday"